Nine Killed In First Day's Hunting

Casualties Top Previous Record

Eight Killed By Gunshot Wounds, One Dies In Accident, Thirteen Injured

ESTIMATE 175,000 HUNTERS IN FIELD

(International News Service)
"Nine Pennsylvanians were dead today as the deer hunting season swung into its second day with an estimated 175,000 hunters hopelessly scouring the woods for game.
Eight of the dead were killed from gunshot wounds while another hunter died in an auto accident en route to the woods. In addition, six others were wounded, six were injured in auto accidents and one man was critically injured falling off a bridge.

Lack Of Snow
This year's opening day death toll far exceeded last year's when two hunters were killed and one bag of game this year was said to be far short of last year's opening day mark.
Hunters blamed the lack of snow and the dry weather which made it difficult to approach the deer without alarming them.

The first day's hunting casualties were:

Samuel Wintersteen, of near Danville, killed near Lewisburg.
Raymond Elliott, 18, of Chicora, fatally shot near Butler, according to police, by a companion who mistook him for a deer.
Walter C. Welzky, 20, of Washington, fatally wounded near Ridgeville, Garfield Johnson, 57, of Mahaffey, killed near Clearfield.
Charles Backers, 16, of Youngwood, killed near Dalton Rock dam, Cambria county.
Jessie Templeton, 57, Hanover township, killed at Thornhurst.
William Humes, of Clintonville, killed near Marienville.
George W. Haft, 42, Erie, found fatally wounded in Erie county.
Ray Peterson, 34, of Boothwyn, was killed when his car struck a pole near Wertzburg, 42, of Chester, was critically injured. The two were on their way to hunt.

Many Are Wounded
Authorities said they believed Johnson, who was to have been a state witness at a grand jury hearing into the fatal stabbing of a Mahaffey man, killed himself.

The wounded hunters were:
John Havrilla, Beaver Meadows, shot near Hazelton; Wilson Croun, 40, Rimersville, shot in Elk county during the season's early minutes; Joseph McDonough, 31, Chester, shot in the chest near Promised Land Pond, Pike county; Peter Yaworchak, 33, of Plymouth, shot on Red Rock Mountain near Nanticoke; Richard Crouch, 18, Oil City, wounded when his own gun accidentally went off; and Charles W. Roscar, 19, struck near Ligonburg, Somerset county.

Howard L. Croll, 43, of St. Davids, plunged 16 feet into a creek while hunting when he tripped on a bridge near Towanda. He was seriously injured.

Crash Injures Five
Five St. Clair men were injured, non seriously, enroute to hunt when their car crashed into a pole near Sunbury.

Thirty Luzerne county hunters who started out to hunt ran afoul of the law instead when they were arrested for trespassing on the Ricketts estate.

To Charles Wynnbrook of Hamilton, apparently went the honor of bagging the first deer, a seven-pointed buck, shot one minute after the season opened.

HUNTING DEER
Joseph D. Alexander, councilman, is on a hunting trip for deer. Neal Williams, attaché of the city engineer's office, is also seeking deer. Sanitary Policeman Chaucy Davis is also on a hunting trip.

PENNSYLVANIA VETERANS MEET FOR 19TH REUNION

crans settled back in their chairs to hear the program they had the good satisfaction of an engineer who has just brought his train through on time.

R. W. Roberts, President
R. W. Roberts has been the president for the past year, with R. B. Lally, first vice president; Stanley Moskowsky, second vice president; F. W. Lawrence, third vice president; M. T. Stone, fourth vice president; B. G. Peterson, fifth vice president; R. E. O'Donnell, treasurer, and E. M. Fisher, secretary.

The committee on arrangements consisted of R. W. Roberts, chairman; R. E. O'Donnell, R. B. Lally, E. M. Fisher, M. J. Stone, W. T. Weschler, Stanley Moskowsky, B. G. Peterson. The reception committee, S. H. Dennis, C. M. Frost, R. A. Franklin, V. C. Smith, D. E. Crist, A. P. Laughran, Morgan Jones, F. D. Perrine, M. J. Paris, J. L. Patterson, R. Linton and I. W. Tate.

For weeks the committees have been functioning with E. M. Fisher spending most of his waking hours in preparation for the big event. Today saw the successful culmination of their efforts and their work was well done. R. B. Lally, yardmaster at Niles, O., was introduced as toastmaster and from there on in Lally had charge of the reunion train.

"America" was sung by the crowd with Morgan Jones directing. During the meal 11 musicians of the Senior high school played with orchestral selections.

"Railroading In France"

The speaker of the day was Major Guy J. Wadlinger, who spoke on "Railroading In France." During the World War Major Wadlinger was stationed at Brest where he had charge of receiving and forwarding all freight that came across from the United States.

From there he went on to show the development in railroading in the past 20 years. He congratulated the veterans upon their service to a great railroad and said that he, too, was a veteran in the game. He is the Pittsburgh area representative of the Kansas City Southern. His address was enjoyed.

The last thing upon the program was the memorial service for those who have answered the last call during the year just finishing. Many of them were present at the 1938 reunion and their absence today because of the Grim Reaper was marked. The veterans who died during the past year follow:

A. C. White, draftsman, New Castle, Pa., December 13, 1938.
O. W. Grove, engineer, Niles, O., December 26, 1938.
L. C. Hughes, retired agent, Jamestown, Pa., January 7, 1939.
J. L. Snyder, retired crossing watchman, Greenville, Pa., January 12, 1939.

A. G. Paisley, retired conductor, Erie, Pa., March 13, 1939.
R. E. Smock, engineer, Erie, Pa., March 16, 1939.
E. G. Collin, special type engineer, Ashtabula, O., May 19, 1939.
William Marso, retired train dispatcher, New Castle, Pa., June 4, 1939.

J. J. Ponsford, retired passenger conductor, Linesville, Pa., June 30, 1939.
G. C. VanNotten, retired machinist, New Castle, Pa., July 22, 1939.
E. L. Wing, machinist, Linesville, Pa., July 22, 1939.
C. B. Piester, chief clerk, New Castle, Pa., September 12, 1939.
E. L. Gilbert, conductor, Bessemer, Pa., October 24, 1939.

Scott Shaner, retired machinist, New Castle, Pa., November 4, 1939.
Charles Fitzmaurice, retired engineer, Erie, Pa., November 18, 1939.
Cremenza Carano, sectionman, Youngstown, O., November 18, 1939.

Day Of Enjoyment

It is a day of enjoyment for the Pennsylvania veterans, a day that is looked forward to with anticipation and back at with pleasurable memories. Every year the reunion seems to take on more meaning, more pleasure and more appreciation of the fellowship it engenders.

The reunion started in 1920 and every year since it has been held. Since the first reunion was held many scores of veterans have passed on but their memories are kept alive through the reunion. Officers were to be elected later this afternoon.

end that such unprovoked bombing shall not be given material encouragement in the light of recent recurrence of such acts, that American manufacturers and exporters of airplanes, aeronautical equipment and materials essential to airplane manufacture, will bear this in mind before negotiating contracts for the exportation of these articles to nations obviously guilty of such unprovoked bombing.

Editor's Note: The "moral" embargo was an American innovation conceived a year ago in an effort to prevent armament sales to Japan for use against China. At that time the state department made known the government's desire that American manufacturers refrain from such sales. Today—in acting against Russia—President Roosevelt personally joined in stating the government's policy.

this fact, and is urging the general public, of which you happen to be a part, to do their Christmas shopping early, same as their Christmas shopping. And it looks as though the public is taking the pleadings to heart, for there has already been a lot of Christmas buying and mailing.

Effects of the withdrawal of Christmas savings funds are beginning to be felt in the city. Many are using their funds to buy Christmas gifts, while others are paying off their debts. Christmas savings accounts serve a very useful purpose in teaching thrift, an old-fashioned virtue, but one which usually brings comfort, contentment and happiness.

According to an old German belief, if you would know what kind of weather to expect during the first three months of winter, take note of the first three days of December. According to the folklore, they are infallible. This is the second day of December, and if you want to test this old belief, just keep track of the kind of weather we have during the next three months.

If you happen to be selling chances on any kind of a lottery to help pay the church debt, or for any other laudable purpose, or if you like to while away a few hours at your favorite game of bingo, you are going to throw yourself liable to arrest, according to an edict from the state police department. Commissioner Lynn G. Adams says all money raising schemes look alike to the lottery law, and if the people of the commonwealth want beneficial lotteries it's up to the Legislature to provide for them. It's sort of been accepted that selling lottery tickets for a good cause is different from selling them as a purely gambling proposition. What do you think about it?

Over at Butler the city council is in a quandary as to what they should do about a dog catcher. The streets and alleys are full of dogs and they're overflowing to the back yards. It looks as though a dog catcher would be walking into a gold mine, but nobody wants the job. We don't blame anybody very much, for "if nobody loves a fat man," it's reasonable to suppose that nobody would transfer affection to a dog catcher. Still, a dog catcher is an important cog in our municipal machinery. Butler councilmen might try offering a reward for one.

An army of Lawrence county hunters are in the wilds of Forest, Potter and other counties hunting deer. In pioneer days deer provided food and clothing for the early settlers, but they're not hunted now so much for the food and clothing they provide, as for the sport of the chase. Of course the venison is not wasted. The provided moment of a hunter's life is probably when he sails into the running blood of his car. His friends gather round and telescope him with their admiring glances. And of course he promises his friends and neighbors a hunk of deer meat, and all is forgiven.

At last it looks as though the long dry spell is going to be broken. It's been pretty hard on some farmers who have had to haul water for their stock ever since early last summer. There hasn't been enough water in the Neshannock creek and Shenango river this summer to wash away the debris that accumulates along the banks.

prove the situation." The Soviets today formally recognized the provisional government set up at Terijoki.

At the request of "President" Otto Kuusinen, diplomatic relations will be resumed, the presidium of the Soviet parliament in Moscow announced.

The Russian general staff's overnight communique gave these details of the widespread advance of the Russian columns:

Fire Villages
"Retreating Finnish troops set fire to villages during bombing attacks by Russian planes. When Finnish planes tried to intervene in these engagements, 10 Finnish planes were shot down. Two or our planes failed to return to their bases."

"Our troops occupied Petsamo. Others approached Murmes, 25 kilometers (15 miles) beyond the frontier in the region of Petrosmetk, and reached the mouth of the river Yoki on the Carelian Isthmus."

"On the shores of Lake Ladoga our troops occupied the railway stations of Rauti and leaving Ketsbolme behind, occupied the Terijoki railway junction as well as several other places."

"The retreating Finnish troops are compelling civilians to withdraw with them."

(The London Daily Mail picked up a Moscow broadcast saying that War Commissar Klement Voroshilov is in personal command of the troops on the Finnish frontier.
(Sixteen divisions—about 240,000 men—are fighting Finland and they are soon to be reinforced, the Mail said. Voroshilov reportedly has at his immediate disposal 1,500 airplanes, including 150 heavy bombers.)

numerous observers pointed out that the executive has cheerfully braved the elements on many more inclement days.
Actually, it was believed, the European situation, combined with pleas by Mr. Roosevelt's physician not to expose himself to the weather in an open car on the sidelines of the Quaker City's unsheltered municipal stadium, influenced the president to stay in the capital.

Although the president's engagement list for the day was unavailable, it was reported he would receive several congressional leaders during the day to discuss the advisability of American diplomatic reprisals against Soviet Russia.
At the same time, it was indicated that the state department soon may publicly proclaim a "moral" embargo on shipment of aircraft and armaments to the Soviet.

Such action, however, would be a formality since government military officials already were revealed to have taken steps to halt the flow of arms to Russia. All efforts by Russia to acquire American aircraft are being blocked by national defense leaders, a high official disclosed.

Legally the government has no grounds on which to stop sales of American aircraft to Russia unless the army and navy have recently bought craft of the type the Soviet is known to be seeking. It can, however, let manufacturers know that consummation of any deals with Russia would be frowned upon officially.

cluding Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, would get out through the country making "good party speeches."

As for Dewey's chances of winning the nomination, GOP leaders withheld comment. It was apparent they will wait to judge the nation's reaction to his speeches on major national issues, starting with his farm speech at Minneapolis next week.

If Dewey reveals a fundamental grasp of intricate national and international problems and then proposes a popular program for handling them, there will be a banwagon rush to his standard. On the other hand, if the public fails to rally to him, he may be only a formidable candidate for the vice-presidential nomination.

One thing is certain about the GOP presidential nomination at this time. An overwhelming majority of Republican leaders who control state delegations to the next convention are uncommitted to any particular candidate. They would like a winner.

A year ago many of them liked Dewey, but with the advent of war in Europe, they slipped away from him. Now it is Dewey's job to recapture that high spot of popularity he held a year ago.

Deaths of the Day

Mrs. Phillip Wallrich.

Many friends will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Phillip Wallrich, aged 77 years, of Aliquippa, formerly of New Castle, which occurred Friday night at 8 o'clock in the Rochester hospital, after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Wallrich was born in Germany but lived in this country for many years. She was for a long time a resident of New Castle, a member of St. Joseph's church, and one of the oldest members of the L. C. B. A. in this parish.

She moved to Sharon, and then several years ago went to Aliquippa where she made her home with her only surviving nephew, Fred Kuhl. Her husband died at Sharon in 1930.

The body will be brought this afternoon to the home of Joseph P. Schnitzler, 631 South Ray street, New Castle, there to remain until the time of the funeral.

The funeral mass will be celebrated in St. Joseph's church and interment will be in St. Joseph's cemetery. The time had not been set at this writing.

Mrs. Libro Ferrigno
Mrs. Mary Ferrigno, wife of Libro Ferrigno, passed away in her home, 817 West State street, Friday night shortly before 8 o'clock. Her death ended a long illness. Her husband and little daughter survive.

The body has been taken to Pittsburgh for funeral services and burial.

W. J. Conway Funeral
Funeral services were conducted at the Neshannock Presbyterian church in New Wilmington on Friday afternoon for W. J. Conway, whose death occurred at his home in New Wilmington on Wednesday afternoon.

Rev. W. F. Byers, pastor of the church, assisted by Dr. S. A. Kirkbride, former pastor, and Dr. J. Ralph Neale, pastor of the New Wilmington United Presbyterian church.

The present and former pastors of Neshannock church paid fitting tribute to Mr. Conway's life and work in the community.

During the services, Dr. Alan B. Davis, head of Westminster School of Music, sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. Davis. The latter also played a number of pipe organ selections.

Interment took place at Neshannock cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were the following Rotarians of New Wilmington: Dr. Frederick Taylor, Howard Temple, Frank McClure, W. Filmore Campbell, Moreland Thompson and Raymond Meek.

Miss Walsh Funeral
Requiem high mass in memory of Clara Helen Walsh of 320 West Grant street, was celebrated in St. Mary's church this morning at 10 o'clock, with Rev. Fr. Leo Watterson in charge.

Pallbearers were Francis Bryson, Michael Quinn, James Quinn, James Neely, Richard Burke and William Gilbey.

Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery, with Fr. Watterson in charge of the committal service at the side of the grave.

Dr. E. C. Porter Funeral.
Funeral services for Dr. Edmond C. Porter of 12 North Mercer street were conducted in the Jos. S. Rice Co. chapel on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, with Rev. Philip C. Pearson, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, in charge.

This morning at 11 o'clock interment was made in the cemetery at Waterford, Pa., and nephews of the deceased served as the pallbearers. Survives at the grave were conducted by Rev. H. W. Gilmer, pastor of St. Peter's church, Erie.

C. H. Smith Funeral.
Funeral services for Charles H. Smith of 709 Brooklyn avenue, took place at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon in the Jos. B. Leyde mortuary, with Rev. J. Albert Tinker, pastor of the Maitland Memorial Primitive Methodist church, in charge.

The pallbearers were Earl Riley, Edward Jones, Charles Jones, Edward Tucker, Walter Pilch and Stanley Smith.

Interment was in Oak Park cemetery.

Julian Funeral Time.
High mass of requiem for Orlando Julian of 618 East Reynolds street will be celebrated at 9 o'clock Monday morning in St. Vitus church, and interment will be in St. Vitus cemetery.

FIRE CALLS VOLUNTEERS
Shenango township's volunteer firemen were summoned when fire broke out in the home of Virgin Pitzer in the East New Castle district. The blaze, believed caused by an overheated furnace, resulted in little loss.

Lovestone, one of the founders of the Communist party in this country and for years a resident of Detroit, now is head of the Independent Labor League of America.

The witness said that he appeared under subpoena because he thought that many problems could better be handled by the labor movement than the Dies committee.

Broke With Moscow
He explained that he "broke with Moscow" in 1929 on request. He listed many honors conferred on him by the Communist party.

"I enjoyed almost every honor except liquidation by a firing squad," he said.

Asked why he broke with Moscow, he said that he and associates urged part democracy.

"Stalin and his group bitterly resented any conception of party democracy," he said.

The Lovestone group, he said, were denounced as "exceptionalists"—a high crime—because they contended there were exceptional conditions in the United States.

"The position of Herr Stalin was that this was to be the finish of capitalism in the United States," he said. "We asserted that there was still a lot of kick in the capitalist system in the United States."

"Stalin and his minions thought that communism was 'just around the corner' in the United States."

ROBERT E. McMILLEN IS MARRIED AT TULSA

The marriage of Lalaree Edwards, Tulsa, Okla., daughter of Mrs. Ida M. Edwards, of Little Rock, Ark., and Robert E. McMullen of Lyons, Kansas, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McMullen of Wilmington avenue, this city, took place Sunday afternoon, November 26, according to word received here.

At 3:30 o'clock, in the presence of an assemblage of guests, the vows were exchanged in the First Baptist church of Tulsa, with the pastor, the Rev. J. W. Storer, officiating. The couple had as their only attendants, Mrs. H. C. Clark, as matron of honor, and Robert McCloy, as best man, both residents of Tulsa.

A reception followed at the home of Mrs. Sally Dowell, 1510 South Denver avenue in Tulsa, where the bride made her home.

Mrs. McMullen is a member of Kappa Delta Phi sorority, and the groom is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh. He is connected with the Gulf Oil corporation, and has been transferred to Clare, Mich., as district engineer, where the couple will make their home after December 4.

MRS. J. N. KERR IS HOSTESS ON FRIDAY

Mrs. J. N. Kerr of Young street, entertained the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church, of which she is president, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. F. S. Neigh used the beautiful Christmas story in the opening devotion, and the members joined in carols. Mrs. W. L. Reneker, in charge of the program, reviewed a chapter from the study book, "Women of the Philippines."

At the conclusion, a social time was enjoyed. Tea was served by Mrs. Robert McKee and Mrs. F. S. Neigh. Others assisting the hostess were Mrs. Edward Foster and Mrs. Frank Fischer.

UNITED SOCIETY CHRISTMAS PARTY

United Missionary Society associates of the Central Christian church enjoyed a Christmas party Friday evening in the church. Mrs. C. F. Dadds was general chairlady.

Featuring the early hours was the presentation of a one-act play, "Word For Christmas," directed by Miss Ruth Garrity. Characters of the play and those participating were: Mrs. Halloway, Ruth Garrity; Wilma Gaston, Eva Zeigler; Nancy Reed, Celia Strobel; Jeannie Halloway, Genevieve Evans; Mary Sue Reed, Jacqueline Conley; Ruth Martin, Bertha Williams; Kathrine O'Brien, Mrs. Elizabeth Sullivan.

Conquests were popular and the winners were Mrs. T. B. Shearer, Mrs. G. A. Leslie and Mrs. J. W. Thomas. Light refreshments were served and Mrs. Dadds' aides were Mrs. Lawson Downes, Mrs. R. D. Thompson, Mrs. Effie Yingling and Mrs. William Evans.

W. C. Club Meets
Five hundred was in play at two tables when W. C. club members met Friday evening in the home of Mrs. William Murphy, Highland avenue extension.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Arthur Long and Mrs. Merle Brooks. Mrs. John Pitzer was a special guest. Lunch was served by the hostess at the close of play.

Plans for a Christmas party were discussed. Next Thursday evening, Dec. 7, Mrs. O. W. Calderwood, Round street, will entertain the club.

C. S. Club To Meet
Associates of the C. S. club will meet Thursday, December 7, for an all day affair at the home of Mrs. Omar Moyer, Castlewood. A tureen dinner will be served at noon, with a social time following.

Little Flower Club
Members of the Little Flower club will be entertained in the home of Mrs. Fred Flynn, Butler avenue, Friday, December 8.

KYMRIC SOCIETY ELECTION MEETING

Friday evening marked the end of the eighth consecutive successful year of being together for members of the Kymric Dramatic society of the First Congregational church. During those years, many of their plays were given in different churches throughout the community.

An election of officers took place with the following results: President, Jack Matthews; vice president, Beatrice Taylor; secretary, Claribel Cope; treasurer, Lela Lewis; and Mrs. Frances Cope was chosen honorary director. The casting committee consists of Harold Miller, Mrs. F. Cope, and Rev. Ross T. Williams.

Three new members, Betty Hughes, Robert Johns, and Betty Fowler, were initiated into the society. Plans were also made to have a Christmas play on December 24 at the church.

Following the meeting, a social time was enjoyed after which delicious refreshments were served by the following committee: Jack Matthews, Melvina Davies, Lela Lewis and Mrs. Frances Cope.

The next meeting will be on January 5 at the church.

THETA RHO GIRLS HONORS MEMBER

Miss Jean Lutton was pleasantly surprised Friday evening when members of the Melissa Fenton Theta Rho Girls club gathered in her home on Garfield avenue, honoring her 21st birthday anniversary. Games and contests provided the entertainment, with Dorothy Young and Thelma Thompson capturing the prizes.

At an appropriate hour, a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Lutton, assisted by Mrs. Josephine Moorhead.

Special guests on this occasion were Cora Mae Newman, Margaret Stall and Mrs. Josephine Moorhead. Jean was the recipient of many lovely gifts in remembrance of the day.

JUNIOR ODD FELLOWS HAVE ENJOYABLE DANCE

With over 50 couples in attendance, the dance given by the David Jameson Lodge No. 19, Jun. O. F., in the I. O. O. F. hall on East Washington street, Thursday evening, was an enjoyable affair.

The hall had been beautifully decorated by Richard P. Hill, chief advisor of the lodge, in the lodge colors for the occasion.

The committee in charge of dance arrangements, composed William R. Earl, Arthur D. Mock, Donald J. Howard, and Donald E. McCormick. Members of the degree team will meet with Associate Advisor William Richardson this evening, when practice will take place for the coming initiation ceremony which will be staged by the lodge.

ANOTHER SHOWER FOR MRS. MCBURNEY

Honoring Mrs. Craig McBurney, new Jane Leicht, a bride of recent date, Mrs. Robert H. McBurney, 130 East Garfield avenue, entertained a number of guests in her home Friday evening at a miscellaneous shower.

Bridge provided the pastime, trophies going to Mrs. Howard Purdy and Mrs. Earl Brookover. In serving a dainty repast, the hostess was aided by Mrs. William Leicht, Mrs. M. Storey Clark and Mrs. R. N. McBurney.

The honoree received a number of lovely gifts from the assemblage. Several attended from Bessemer and Butler, Pa.

Friday Bridge Club Formed

Mrs. Everett Brest proved a pleasing hostess Friday evening when she entertained in her home on Highland avenue, for members of the newly formed Friday Evening Bridge club. Miss Rosalie Ward was a special guest.

Bridge honors went to Mrs. Myrtle Hamilton, Mrs. Mildred Martin and Mrs. William Ellis. Mrs. Clarence J. Love won the traveling trophy. A light repast was served at the tables and Miss Ward aided.

December 15, members will meet with Mrs. William Ellis, Fairmont avenue.

M. P. M. Club

JEWISH LADIES SOCIETY TO MEET

Jewish Ladies Relief society will meet Tuesday, December 5, at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Jack Kulkin, 428 Boyles avenue, which will be in the form of a "Chanukah" party.

At this assembly, each will take an article of canned goods, for a basket to be delivered to a family in need. Mrs. Ben Kline is president of the organization.

Hostesses compose, Mrs. Jack Kulkin, Mrs. Harry Kulkin, Mrs. Sam Rosen, Mrs. Ed. Fisher, Mrs. Hyman Ryzewich and Mrs. Simon Skole.

HELENA AUXILIARY LUNCHEON MEETING

Luncheon, planned and served by Mrs. Alice McKillop, Mrs. Morgan Jones, Mrs. J. S. McKee and Mrs. J. W. Dean, was followed Friday afternoon in the First Presbyterian parlors by a business meeting of Helena Auxiliary, in charge of Mrs. W. A. Pond, president.

The program of the afternoon included a devotional period; "The Christmas Story", by Mrs. R. N. McBurney, a talk on stewardship by Mrs. C. N. Moore, a paper on pioneer missions, prepared by Mrs. Frank Reed, who was unable to be present, and read by Miss Maud Elder, who also gave a talk on the Philippines. The auxiliary adjourned, to meet again on the first Friday of January, 1940.

HAPPY HOUR CLUB GUESTS FRIDAY EVE

Happy Hour club members were graciously entertained Friday evening by Miss Melba Davenport at the home of Mrs. J. C. Burnside, Highland avenue, on Friday evening, the occasion marking their regular assembly.

The hours were devoted to contests, and prizes fell to Mrs. Nannie Thompson and Mrs. Blanche Keane at the close. Afterwards, a very delicious lunch was served the group.

Plans were formulated for their next meeting on December 15, to be in the form of a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. R. G. Leslie, Moore avenue. Names were drawn for this event, and in addition, a "white elephant" feature will be a highlight.

Just Us Club.

Mrs. George Eckhardt was welcomed as a new member at the Just-Us club meeting in the home of Mrs. Les Fraser, Court street, Friday evening.

The hours were spent in playing 500 with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Elroy Lockley and Mrs. Paul Tyrell. Mrs. Eckhardt aided the hostess in serving lunch.

Mrs. Robert Coulter was a special guest at the meeting.

On Wednesday, December 13, Mrs. Rudy Hnatt will be hostess to the club in the home of Mrs. Paul Tyrell, 16 South Front street.

Excell Club Make Plans

Members of the Excell club will meet in the home of Mrs. Gertrude Knell, East Washington street, December 13, for a Christmas party. Plans were rounded out at their last assembly held in the home of Mrs. Paul Jones, Hillcrest avenue, recently, when she entertained informally at cards. Mrs. W. K. Allison and Mrs. Emory Wolfe captured the prizes for honors.

Lunch was the concluding feature, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. Laura Houck.

Star Castleers

Contract bridge provided the chief pastime at the Star Castleers meeting in the home of Mrs. Howard Boalick, Hillcrest avenue, Thursday evening. Prizes for this pastime were awarded to Mrs. Dora Lenhart and Mrs. Edith Bement. Lunch was served at the close.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Harold Hartzell, Highland avenue, in the form of a Christmas party.

Break-Away Club

Break-Away club members gathered in the home of Mrs. Ed Bigley, Walter street, Thursday evening. Games were played with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Paul McDonald and Lucille Lynch. Lunch was served by the hostess, aided by Mrs. Claude Beckman.

Next meeting will be December 21 with Mrs. Paul McDonald, Superior street, as hostess.

Reunited Ladies League

Reunited Ladies League members will meet in the home of Mrs. John Sonntag, 1331 East Washington street, on Thursday, December 7, instead of in the home of Mrs. Charles Martin, Neshannock avenue, as previously announced.

COUPLE TO RESIDE IN YOUNGSTOWN, O.

After January 1, upon their return from a short motor trip, Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. McCurdy, nee Mary Catherine Jackson, will make their home in Youngstown, O. Their wedding was an event of Thursday, November 30, taking place in the Epworth Methodist parsonage at 2 p. m. with Rev. W. A. Thornton officiating.

The couple's attendants were Mrs. Dallas L. Shields, Jr., of Sharon and Dr. Kenneth Ewing Voorhees, this city. The vows were exchanged in the presence of the parents of both the bride and groom.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Jackson, 2309 Highland avenue, graduated from New Castle high school and New Castle Business college and attended Westminster college. She has been secretary in the Lawrence county juvenile and probation office for 3 1/2 years.

Mr. McCurdy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. McCurdy, Fairmont avenue, graduated from Chambersburg, Pa. high school. He is a draftsman with the Ohio-Edison company at Youngstown.

MRS. JOHN PORTER ENTERTAINS T. T. T's

Mrs. John Porter was hostess to the T. T. T. club members at the home of Mrs. R. G. McCartney, on the Mt. Jackson road, Friday evening, and as a special guest they had Mrs. Arthur Schuler and Mrs. C. C. McDermott.

Contests in bridge held sway until a late hour, with smart prizes going to Mrs. Arthur Schuler, Mrs. R. G. McCartney and Mrs. Eleanor Webb.

An appetizing lunch was served at the close by the hostess, with Mrs. McCartney assisting.

Plans were made for their yuletide party on Friday night, Dec. 8, at a suburban tea room. Their next regular gathering, however, will take place Friday, Jan. 12, with Mrs. Roy Ringer, Ray street.

BURTON SLOAN TO BE HONORED

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Sloan are inviting their friends to their home, 108 East Euclid avenue, on Sunday evening for a social time honoring their son, Burton, who was confirmed on Friday evening at 8 o'clock, in the Temple Israel.

Junior C. D. of A. Troop 6

Junior C. D. of A. troop 6 members were entertained Thursday evening in the home of Veneta Fazzone, 207 Park avenue. The hostess, who is president, conducted a lengthy business session.

Tests for the second-class pins were given after which arrangements were formulated for the initiation services to be given December 3 of the whole organization of this vicinity. Additional plans were laid for the packing of Christmas baskets and appropriate committees were appointed. Anita Sacco was appointed to the role of reporter, due to a resignation.

Contests were enjoyed and the winners were Anna Carvelia and Mary Richards. Tasty refreshments were served by the hostess, aided by her mother, Mrs. Humbert A. Fazzone.

Mildred Felasco will be the next hostess at her home on Huron avenue, at the next meeting, in December.

Butler County Wedding

Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Withers of Garfield avenue are home from Knicker, Butler county, where Rev. Withers, pastor of the Braughton and St. John's Methodist churches, officiated at the wedding of Ruth Margaret Sankey of Keister and DeWitt Boesel of West Sunbury. The wedding took place at the home of the bride.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

EVILS OF RAPID READING

Some persons read at an amazing rate, while most of us read rather slowly. Most reading experts seem to assume that practically every person should read more rapidly than he does. The experts point out that slow readers usually have wasteful eye movements as they read and tend to pronounce every word, even to move the lips when they read silently.

For reading fiction, at which the bulk of reading time is spent merely for narrative, speed is certainly very desirable. Speed also is desirable for skimming serious materials. But for literary style, for improvement of self-expression in speech or writing, and for reflective thinking and mastery of facts, the habit of very rapid reading may prove a hindrance rather than a help.

How did Abe Lincoln and Benjamin Franklin get their simple, forceful styles? They were not rapid readers. They read far fewer books than the average sixth grade child has read. But they read these books over and over, without reason, for haste as they did so. Lincoln was read to in his early years. Probably Franklin also was. Franklin said he read Addison with a purpose to imitate his style. You see the results in his Autobiography.

Just Skim Through
What is happening to the average high school student who attempts to read rapidly from his basic textbooks? The trouble is that so many of them only skim these books, scarcely mastering the alphabet of careful and reflective study.

Furthermore the average high school and college student is expected to read so many "solid books" that for want of time his reading is only skimming. He gets rough impressions, very rough, instead of mastery. Often he leaves a course in a maze of confusion.

If the average student in high school, certainly in college, were to read carefully and reflectively all the books assigned in his courses, he would have no time left for sleep or recreation. A few conscientious students do try to read all of them and pay the price.

I believe about the greatest curse in high school and college is the long, listless lists of "outside readings." I'm not condemning the list but the length of it. Maybe the magnitude of book assignments at high school and college is a major factor in inducing students to avoid serious reading after graduation.

Time was when, at reading at school, in the grades, was oral reading. Now nearly all is silent reading, but there is a swing back to more oral reading, fortunately.

Any youth or adult who wishes to improve his effectiveness of expression can afford to read aloud for half an hour or so a day, choosing materials written in simple, forceful style. The Bible is a good source, so are the classic fairy tales. If a young child happens to be listening, so much the better.

Solving Parent Problems
Q. Why do you advise reading, rather than telling, stories to the young child at home?

A. Almost anyone can read a story; few can tell it well. When you read, you usually employ better language. Besides, the book has pictures and takes on for the child a kind of personality as the source of things to think about, rather than a person.

The mailman comes, the mailman goes,
The postman passes by,
And some one only can suppose
And wait, and wonder why
Today no letter, and tonight
A silence hard to bear.

We wonder if they can't write
Or simply do not care?
The little note is laid away,
The letter put aside,
Yet someone hoped to hear today
An answering voice denied.

You may be busy, well we know,
So many things you're at;
You may be busy, are you, though,
As busy as all that?
Oh, keep the tree of friendship green
When friends are far apart.

How much a word of yours may mean
To cheer some absent heart!
The rose unwaters droops and dies,
Yes, dies in some sad hour;
The letter that unanswered lies
Is love's unwaters flower.

Good Taste

See U. S. Patent Office

One of my closest women friends has just been made secretary of a powerful corporation and given a salary in five figures. Having watched her progress step by step from junior stenographer to a member of the firm, I can quite definitely indicate the causes of her upward swing. Most important of all, is good taste which she has maintained throughout her career. And the most trivial affair she has handled with the same guarded with the same secrecy as an attorney or a physician maintains toward the affairs of his client or patient. She has never been known to talk shop with anyone except her superiors in office. And to them, she has never criticized her assistants. No matter how friendly she had been with the executives outside the office, she has always maintained formality with them during business hours. Even during the most trying transactions she has been pleasant with clients or colleagues or inferiors during conversations either direct or by telephone. Since she first acquired even semi-executive powers, those working under her have never been conscious that she has "bossed" them.

Readers' Questions Answered
Dear Miss Markel: Please tell me what a service plate is.—Polly.

Answer: It is the plate set at each corner when the table is set and upon or beside which the napkin is placed. It may match the entire of the dinner set or it may be of an entirely different pattern. At formal dinners a place plate or service plate is used during the entire meal up to the dessert course. And at no time should a place remain plateless. At the end of each course, the used plate is removed and a service plate put down to remain until the next course comes along. A plate containing food should not be exchanged for a used plate. A clean one should be served between them. This procedure is followed only at formal dinners.

Miss Markel will promptly mail personal answers to questions from any reader enclosing self-addressed three-cent stamped envelope.

Vandenberg Trails In Straw Voting
But Is Not Behind With Politicians
Dewey Leads In All Voting To Date

By CHARLES P. STEWART

Central Press Columnist
WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—In all the straw polls I've seen to date Thomas E. Dewey has been the public's favorite for the Republican presidential nomination in 1940, and Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg has trailed him. In turn, other "possibilities" have trailed Vandenberg, in varying orders of precedence.

This may be the correct verdict, as to the rank-and-file of G. O. P. voters.

However, it isn't the conclusion that I'd draw from talks with numbers of professional politicians in Washington, where they assemble representatives from every corner of the country.

These gentry unquestionably give a plurality in favor of Vandenberg, with Dewey not even in second place on the list. Their second choice seems to be Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

Taft, by the way, doesn't like straw polls. He says they ought to be investigated, intimating that he suspects they're doctored. Maybe he'd feel differently about it if they put him at the top of the scroll. They don't, though, so perhaps he's prejudiced. No complaints are heard from Tom Dewey.

Glamorous, All Right
The experts' objection to Dewey is that he hasn't any national experience. They admit that he's glamorous, just as Paul V. McNutt, on the Democratic side, is physically beautiful.

But they argue that glamour and beauty are not presidential qualifications.

Republican doers reckon that they can lick a beauty more readily with a substantial cold-boiled candidate than with a glamorous one. They'd be pretty well suited to fight beauty with a political old-timer, but they prefer not to do it with glamour as their ammunition.

Some suggest that Dewey, with his glamour, might be all right as vice presidential nominee. But he wouldn't do at all in second place on a ticket with Vandenberg. Van is a Michigander. Dewey, though now a New Yorker, also originated in the Wolverine state. It would be altogether too much Michigan to look the two together. Taft (Ohio) and Dewey (New York) would be quite a k. But not Vandenberg and Dewey.

Nominational Chances
The nominational chances of Representative Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts are improving. As Republican leader in the lower congressional chamber, Joe Martin has been extremely effective. He's a capable statesman and his popular drawback is that he isn't quite well enough known throughout the country.

Senator Charles S. McNary, Republican leader in the upper chamber on Capitol Hill, is talked about but says he isn't an aspirant. No doubt the Oregonian would surrender if drafted, but he probably won't be.

Governor John W. Bricker of Ohio is referred to, but Senator Taft game state offsets him.

Pennsylvania Republicans are betting Governor Arthur H. James but it hasn't taken very well yet. His geography is all to the good, and maybe he's too, but he hasn't registered thus far.

Now and then Alf M. Landon continues to be hinted at for another try.

So is Herbert Hoover.

But they're not considered seriously.

Senator Bridges?
Senator Styles Bridges of New Hampshire is waging a really energetic campaign.

It's rather pathetic.

He stands no more chance of getting that nomination than I do—and I'm not a Republican, or Democrat. Yet he has an organization, "releases." He's got a committee. He's a darned sight more active than other aspirants who really are "possibilities." He must be spending a lot of money. He's a political curiosity.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

JUST "DOODLE"

Every business man, every politician and every man who is a busy man is bothered with callers that like to sit and talk about nothing in particular. They just like to sit, I guess, and their tongues are usually swung in the middle.

Now, if any of these busy men want to rid themselves of these obnoxious guests they should remember Grover Cleveland's note system, and remembering the note system, the busy man will be reminded of the picture, "Mr. Deeds Goes To Town," for the president's system was that of a "doodler."

When President Cleveland had a particularly bothersome visitor, the story goes, he would squirm a little while and then idly work his pencil on a piece of paper and finally hand it to the pest. The paper would look like this:

OO O O O O

"Why, what does this mean?" the unwitting visitor would ask.

Then President Cleveland would fill it out for him.

GOOD GOD DO GO

And they say none of them ever came back.

The Great Game Of Politics

By FRANK R. KENT

Copyright, 1939,

Later Conventions

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.

IT IS, of course, perfectly natural for the Republicans to be suspicious of political suggestions in which they are supposed to acquiesce, when they come from Mr. Roosevelt. Emanating from that source, certainly there is no reason to rush up on the roof to cheer. They have a right to feel that he is not animated by a desire to be helpful.

NEVERTHELESS, when the President makes a sound proposal, he did in advocating holding the two national conventions next year some weeks later than usual, it seems absurd to reject it for any of the reasons given. One of these is that the press and people about the country are "projecting the idea" many months ago. Another is that Mr. Roosevelt's solicitude about economy in campaigns would have more weight if he had concerned himself more about economy with the Federal funds. Another is that it would give the President more time to enjoy his game of mystifying the press and people about the third term. Another is that unless checked this passion for changing the calendar will get to be chronic with him.

ALL of these things may be true, but none of them affects the essential soundness of the proposal. The fact is no good reason for a four months' Presidential campaign can be given; there are a great many for shortening it to three months—or even less. Take the single question of money. The change can be justified on that alone. In recent years, the amount of money spent by the two political parties has grown to truly shocking proportions. Campaigns are so long and so costly that all sort of questionable ways and the Corrupt Practices Acts are violated by the politicians in a shameless and brazen way.

HUGE sums are raised, not all of which by any means is accounted for as required by law, and a large proportion of which is wasted. A shortened campaign would at least reduce the total, and thus reduce the law violation and the obligations under which the heavy contributions place the candidates and their managers. It isn't of course, acknowledged, but these big campaign contributions do place the candidate under obligations. No better proof of this can be asked than the list of Ambassadors and Ministers named by this President and most of his predecessors in the last fifty years. Anything that can be done to lessen these obligations would be distinctly in the national interests. Mr. Roosevelt probably did not have this in mind when he made the suggestion, but it is true just the same.

SO far as time is concerned, in the days before the radio and the airplane it did take more time for the Presidential candidate to reach the people and he was under the necessity of personally visiting every debatable State. But, even then, four months was too long and weeks were wasted in inaction following the conventions, which have uniformly been held the last of June and the first week in July. In these days, take a full third of a year to conduct a campaign, in which business is kept in a state of uncertainty and the nation flooded with propaganda, on the ground that the people cannot be reached in less, is just absurd.

WITH present day facilities any candidate—even one not nationally known before his nomination—who cannot impress his name upon the people and adequately express his views between the middle of August and the first week in November, hasn't much personality and checks short on views. As to the

TORTURE OF CHILDHOOD

Time was, when I was very small, they stuck me up against a wall and said, that clearer speech might come.

"Now from your mouth remove your thumb."

And speak that piece for Auntie Jane.

About the boat and counterpane!" By that, although my years were eight.

I had an elder sister who, from visitors in terror flew. When company arrived she tried Her best to find a place to hide, Because she knew very long She'd have to sing a little song. She hated, as she told me then, "Nice ladies and fine gentlemen."

Now when some youngster small I hear Stammering about Paul Revere And up to him his mother comes And out of his mouth to take his thumbs.

I wonder in my easy chair As I behold him suffering there. As I hate him, as way back then, I hated all fine gentlemen.

FOR BETTER SPEECH

IF clear enunciation is an important asset to youth in this competitive era, it is sad news indeed that the trend in the New York City schools is toward "nasality, hoarseness, frequent 's' distortion and the substitution of 'd' for 'th'." This, however, is the gist of a report made by Victor A. Fields, director of the speech clinic at City College. Since 1931 the college has studied the speech of more than 10,000 freshmen. Each year a larger number of young people have been sent to the clinic for brushing-up on verbal expression.

In a civilization where the telephone and the radio play important parts in daily living, where salesmanship has become a matter of personality plus, it is evident that the New York City public schools are falling down on a vital task. It is a harder task in New York than in most sections of the country because the New York schools draw a large number of students from foreign families. The, too, cursory observation tends to the conclusion that most adults in New York City say "bold" for "bird," "moider" for "murder," etc.

Even so, in smaller communities today there is no over-emphasis placed on good diction in the schools. On any street in any town one hears an alarming quantity of sloppy speech.

Add slipshod speech to local idioms and you have a difficult problem for any school. Parents could do a great deal to help the teachers by watching their own "ths," paying attention to final "gs," and remembering that only a few consonants need be issued through the nose.

THEY FOUND NO PEACE

The reason behind the decision of the Nobel Committee to award no Peace Prize this year needs no elaboration. The announcement was curt and to the point: There are no outstanding candidates for the award.

If good intentions alone were sufficient, a number of eligibles might be mentioned. Perhaps even Mr. Chamberlain, undoubtedly sincere in his efforts of appeasement, would qualify as the foremost candidate. But in view of the results of his policy, even mention of his name would be ironic.

Europe is at war. Asia has been at war for a long time. And nobody has been able to do anything about it. That washes up the Nobel Peace Prize for this year at least. There is, however, abundant precedent for withholding the award. Only once during the World War was the honor conferred and that was in 1917, the recipient being the International Red Cross of Geneva. Last year a similar gesture was made, the prize being given to the Nansen International Office for Refugees at Geneva.

So far as repercussions are concerned, the 1935 award was most conspicuous. It was given to Carl van Ossietzky, a German, in the face of strenuous Nazi objection. Unfortunately, the honor did Ossietzky personal harm in his own country. Such incontrovertible proof that a German was opposed to war branded him as a traitor in the eyes of Hitler.

Better to have no peace prize at all than a dubious award or persecution as a by-product.

SPIRIT OF GIVING

Now that the enjoyments and duties of Thanksgiving—are over, expectation turns to the Christmas season. Christmas shopping must be undertaken in earnest.

This will mean a boost for business, but it means much more than that. It means a boost for a lot of human sentiments that should be encouraged and cultivated because they are among Man's most precious possessions.

Conditions of modern life tend to scatter members of families. In former times the young people stayed at home or in the home community until they reached maturity and assumed responsibilities of their elders. Now the elusive job or the larger fields of employment may take sons and daughters far away and busy their thoughts so that they even forget to write to fathers and mothers at home.

The Christmas season conserves the home-loving spirit. All should heed its appeal. All should remember the old home and the dear ones who linger there. It is a time to take thought of the old friends whose lives will be brightened by proof that they are not forgotten.

A gift may represent far more than its cost in money. It may not represent a big sum in cash, but if it is a true gift, it will carry with it something far more precious than is indicated by its price mark.

No Nobel Peace Prize will be awarded this year. —Get the point?

Here is another thing to be said for iceless refrigerators. Since they became so common there have been fewer ice pick murders.

If the warlords over in Europe want to do something really constructive they might send the boys home for the Christmas holidays.

Forbidden to sail under their own flag or that of any other nation and tied up at docks, it isn't exactly home, sweet home to American ships.

It is said that the government may now try to go into the insurance business, which just about covers everything so far as federal activity is concerned.

Rep. "Ham" Fish has announced he would "seriously consider" a 1940 Republican Presidential nomination if a "real demand" develops. "Ham" always is the most comical when he is serious.

Mussolini told a gathering of his countrymen that "war with arms is the normal state of people," but appears to feel that innocent bystanders under certain circumstances is not without its good points.

In these days of confusion and planned chaos hardly anything comes as a surprise, but it was sort of a shock to learn that the National Labor Relations Board is having its printing done at a non-union print shop.

Chris Clark Traces Telephone History

Bell Telephone Man Speaks To Boys Club On South Side
Friday Night

Chris A. Clark, Bell Telephone company representative, last night revealed the history and development of the telephone to 80 South Side district youths attending the organization meeting of the boys club sponsored by The Townsmen, young men's civic club.

Clark, member of The Townsmen, described the transformation of the phone from its first stage to the dial.

This year starts the second decade of South Side boys' club work for The Townsmen. Each Friday night during the fall and winter the club gathers in First Congregational church along with representatives of The Townsmen to hear speakers and discuss Americanism and good citizenship.

The club last night elected Eddie Sowinski, senior high griddier who suffered a broken leg in play this season, as its president. He lives at 1108 South Jefferson street.

STUDENT PLAYERS SCORE SUCCESS IN DADDY-LONG-LEGS

touch. Daddy Long Legs last night happened to be David Schoenfeld who played the role of Mr. Jervis Pendleton. Pendleton, trustee of an orphanage, finds Judy living there and, after some thought, decides to lift her from the institution in which she was raised into a college classroom. Then an interesting plot develops.

Judy last night was Betty Jane Davis—and a real hit Miss Davis made. Sharing honors with her were Roberta Elder as Mrs. Lepett, Jack Potter as James McBride, Ruth Peterson as Sallie McBride and others. All were good in their roles.

Miss Hartsuff, Coach
Coaching the play was Miss Clara Hartsuff, to whom the class presented a floral gift mid-way in the play last night. The class president, James Hewitt, made the presentation.

The complete cast, including four-year-old Donna Lee Bragg, "the littlest orphan" in the home, who sat and smiled at the audience through most of the first act (and, needless to say, won the hearts of all) included:

Jervis Pendleton—David Schoenfeld.
James McBride—Jack Potter.
Cyrus Wykoff—Frank McNeese.
Abner Parsons—William Cushion.
Griggs—Crawford Richards.
Walters—James Hewitt.

Judy—Betty Jane Davis.
Miss Pritchard—Marian Hughes.
Mrs. Pendleton—Joanna Hood.
Julia Pendleton—Joanna Hood.
Sallie McBride—Ruth Peterson.
Mrs. Sempie—Marilyn Pearce.
Mrs. Lippert—Roberta Elder.
Sadie Kate—Marjorie McNicholas.

Gladiola—Jean Dufford.
Loretta—Shirley Potter.
Mamie—Dolores Moore.
Freddie Perkins—DeEtta Cartwright.

Carrie—Jean Sanders.
The Littlest Orphan—Donna Lee Bragg.

The musical numbers of the groups follow:

"Martha Overture"—Flotow.
(Senior High School Orchestra)
"The Dwellers in the Western World"—Sousa.

"The White Man"—from the suite:

MOVING PICTURES WIELD POWERFUL INFLUENCE OVER CHILDREN

Of all the modern things which are calculated to upset children, affect their nerves and harry their emotions, I think perhaps the motion pictures are the worst. They are so real and so life-like. Why parents make a habit of taking very young children to certain movies, I don't know.

Sometimes, it is because there is no one to leave the child with, and they don't want to leave him alone in the house while you go. Yet this pernicious habit of taking small children to the movies is responsible, I am sure, for many of the mental upsets that occur in childhood and adolescence. If a child is to be taken to a motion picture before he is twelve years old, then the picture that he sees must be chosen as one that a child can understand without having his emotions upset.

I heard of a child the other day that never did recover from the scare he received at one of those "horror" pictures he saw. And the unbelievable part is that the wailing and screaming of the child was taken by his parents. When the good people of Hollywood make these pictures, they haven't got ten-year-old children in their minds. They don't even consider that these children will be at the movies and so they turn out one type of picture for adults and another for children.

Taking a child to a picture built around a dramatic love story is ridiculous. But even this is less harmful than taking a boy to see a gangster picture, or one in which cowboys and bad men are continually murdering each other. These pictures he will understand to a slight degree, but chances are that the moral in the picture—that right always triumphs—will be lost to him entirely.

Of course the best way to curb a child's desire to see blood-curdling movies is never to let him get a start. Once you expose a child to these exciting influences, he will want more than ever to see them again and again. Let him wait until he is twelve at least, for then there isn't the same danger of upsetting him or giving him the wrong idea of how to be a hero.

You see, many youngsters yearn for the respect and the worship of boys their own age. They will often go great lengths to obtain it. If they see a few movies where a man, by acting tough and flashing guns all over the place, cuts quite a figure, they may try to ape him.

Children vary greatly in the amount of excitement they can stand without being upset in some way about it. So it is up to the parents to study the child and make up their minds what the children tolerate without harm. An unimaginative child can see all sorts of gangster movies and hear all kinds of mystery thrillers over the air and not be greatly affected. On the other hand, a child who is bright, who has a vivid imagination and whose nervous system is easily upset, may derive a great deal of harm from the same pictures.

Barring a few short subjects, mostly about themselves, the Dionne Quintuplets haven't seen any movies. Any they do see will be right in the nursery and we will see to it that what they see will be interesting and instructive as well as entertaining.

DAILY DOZEN

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

Every motorist should adopt the open-door policy.

The garage door is the door referred to. Many persons will die from carbon monoxide poisoning this winter. Many of them because they did not open the garage door.

Carbon monoxide is colorless and odorless. Its poison is most insidious, with no warning of danger. There may come headache and muscular weakness.

The victim may indifferently pass into oblivion. He may be brought out of it promptly or pass into a coma and die. The after-effects of acute carbon monoxide poisoning vary. Cerebral hemorrhage, pneumonia and paralysis are possibilities. When the motor is running, leave the garage door open—and live.

Ward People Send Coffee To Friends Living In Italy

War Situation Brings Strange
Packages To Post Office
For Shipment

Despite the fact that the importation of coffee to Italy has been halted since the war broke out, friends and relatives of many Seventh ward people, who live in Italy, will have coffee for Christmas.

All this week ward residents have been bringing packages of coffee to the Mahoningtown Post Office, addressed to either a relative or friend in Italy. Letters from Italy recently have told of the scarcity of coffee and to take care of this situation, the people here, where coffee is plentiful, are trying to answer the call with gifts of coffee. Most of the packages being sent from here are in small amounts, ranging anywhere from two and three pounds up to 25 pounds. Some is shipped in raw form, to be roasted upon arrival and some is roasted and ground before shipment. Although the postal rate for shipments to Italy is rather high, it is paid cheerfully by the coffee senders.

It was learned at the post office that the packages mailed now will reach Italy just about in time for Christmas.

Many Hunters From Ward In Deer Land

Group Searching For Deer This

Finish Work On Skating Rink In Ward On Friday

City workmen with the aid of members of the Seventh Ward Progressive club completed all work on the new ice skating rink on the Progressive club athletic field, South Ashland avenue, Friday afternoon.

The city scraper was brought into service to dig out the rink and pile the dirt into small retaining walls around the rink. This will hold water in place while it freezes.

Representatives of the City of New Castle Water company will come to the ward after the first freeze and flood this new rink.

Chest Workers In Ward End Annual Drive This Week

Final Reports Have Been Turned In To Community
Chest Headquarters

With somewhat better reports this year than last, the Community Chest workers in the Seventh ward this week ended their annual drive, and turned in all of the results to the Community Chest office.

As usual a house to house canvass was made for solicitations for the chest. Following workers comprised the ward committee this year:

Mrs. Viola Taylor, Mrs. Rose DiGennaro, Mrs. Ora Pearce, Mrs. W. C. Shanefelt, Mrs. Mary G. Natale, Mrs. Fannie Hutnick, Mrs. John M. Conn, Mrs. Hanna Gwilym, Mrs. Frank R. Holliday, Mrs. A. F. Stritzinger and Mrs. Nick Cangey.

CHANGE IN CORNER
In the past two months a surprising change has been made at the corner of North Liberty street and East Madison avenue. Nearly every old tree, well known landmarks in the ward, have been cut down. Workmen removed the last of the large trees Friday.

GETS 8-POINT DEER
It was reported today that the deer shot by Manley Broadbuss of 307 West Madison avenue, at 9 o'clock, Friday morning was an 8-point buck.

Throat Of Child

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 2.—Brought by airplane from her home in Youngstown, O., one-year-old Joseph Redmond rested in Temple hospital today while physicians prepared to remove an open safety pin from her throat.

Joanne swallowed the pin on Tuesday and X-rays at Youngstown hospital showed the obstruction lodged in her esophagus. Arrangements were made to have Dr. Chevalier Jackson, famed inventor of the bronchoscope, remove the pin at Temple hospital.

Time has not yet been set for the operation, but attaches said the child bore the 350-mile plane ride "very well."

Motor Deaths Show Decrease

Number Is Five Less Than Last Year With Month
Yet To Go

Deaths resulting from automobile and motorcycle accidents will be less than last year, Coroner Charles Piper Byers believes, the total for 1939 being five less than during 1938, with a month yet to go.

Unless an unprecedented number of such fatalities occur this month, a decrease will be shown for the second successive year.

During 1938, there were 25 deaths from traffic and highway crashes, while so far this year there have only been 20, of which 18 were caused by automobiles, and two by motorcycles.

Boys were alleged to have discharged missiles from an air rifle which broke windows on North Hill streets and also in a North street house last night.

Dodge coupe, bearing Pennsylvania license UK176, owned by Floyd Cameron, was reported stolen from West Washington street last night.

Directors of the various departments of the city government have not yet completed estimates of what their individual bureaus will require in 1940. It was reported today. Consequently no budget meeting has been held, and none will be conducted until all the estimates have been submitted to Finance Director J. L. Pink. It was reported today Mayor Charles E. McGraw has issued an invitation to incoming officials to attend the appropriation sessions.

Opera Stars Air Their Views on Specialization

Complaints of Hollywood stars that they are being "typed" and will refuse to accept similar roles time after time, frequently break into the news. Yet opera stars, generally considered even more temperamental, stick to their arbitrary typing as Wagnerian or Italian singers season after season without serious complaint. Their docility is the more amazing because few of the vocalists believe in such specialization.

Lauritz Melchior, the Metropolitan's tenor, for example, carries the Wagnerian banner year after year, but declares, "I don't believe in specialization," and proves it by singing Italian roles in California and Europe. Lotte Lehmann is another specialist, in the realm of lieder singing. Abroad she sings every conceivable role in the dramatic soprano role, but at the Met she is confined principally to Wagner.

Elisabeth Rethberg, who has 106 roles in her repertoire, one of the largest in opera history, declares, "Specialization limits the horizons of an artist." She is one of the few singers who has managed to escape classification. During her Met career she has sung everything from Verdi to Wagner.

Lily Pons is another specialist, with her soaring voice, the highest of any prima donna's, at its best in roles like Lakme and Lucia. And yet Miss Pons doesn't like the idea of being confined, and yearns to sing Wagner.

Friedrich Schorr, the baritone, is the outstanding dissenter. Interested in building up a Wagnerian tradition in America, he declares, "Specialization brings perfection, and its wisdom has been substantiated in the careers of many artists." (Central Press)

His $2 Bet Won $1,736

"I can never win a bet," said J. E. McWhorter, in Washington, D. C., as he asked four girls bound for Bowie race track to place a $2 daily double bet for him. But his ticket won and the girls brought him a haul of money, $1,736.30. Left to right, Corinne Dulin, Edna Phelps, Cora McAllister, Edna Chambers and Mrs. McWhorter. (Central Press)

12¢-a-Week Flier Turns Hero

His wife and ten-month-old son, John, appear mighty pleased with Flying Officer Reginald C. Graveley, Britain's latest war hero. His plane shot down in flames by an enemy fighter, Graveley although badly wounded dragged his wounded observer and gunner to safety. He was awarded the O.B.E. for heroism. A former transport worker, he learned to fly in the Busmen's Flying Club for sixpence (12 cents) a week. (Central Press)

GRUNT AND GROAN IN REAL LIFE

Everett Marshall, twice world's heavyweight wrestling champion, ought to be right at home here—among the grunt and groaners. And he is, too, for Ev has a 1,000-acre ranch at La Junta, Colo., reputed to be worth $500,000 fully stocked. (Central Press)

Pretty girls? Yes, indeed, but look at those diamonds they're wearing. Brenda Frazier, New York's Glamor Girl No. 1, is wearing a 125-carat chunk of the Linkers diamond, valued at $1,000,000. Esme O'Brien, well-known socialite, is wearing a glittering necklace of diamonds. The girls modeled the costly jewelry at a fashion show.

Dash to Save Dog Costs Owner's Life

Five-year-old Edwina Grogan and her dog, Fritz, gaze at each other. In the girl's eyes there is bewilderment, and an awareness of tragedy. The child's father, Edward Grogan, 50, of New York City, was killed when, in pursuit of the dog which he had unleashed, he rolled beneath the wheels of a trolley car. The dog was unhurt. ## Finns Flee Town Reported Sovietized

This picture was made recently as the residents of Terijoki, last Finnish town on the road to Soviet Russia, evacuated it before the then-threatened invasion of the Red forces. Terijoki, reported occupied by Soviet troops, is stated to have set up a Communist regime, "created by the will of the Finnish people" of the town. (Central Press)

FOTORELIEF SHOWS WHERE RUSS-FINN WAR RAGES

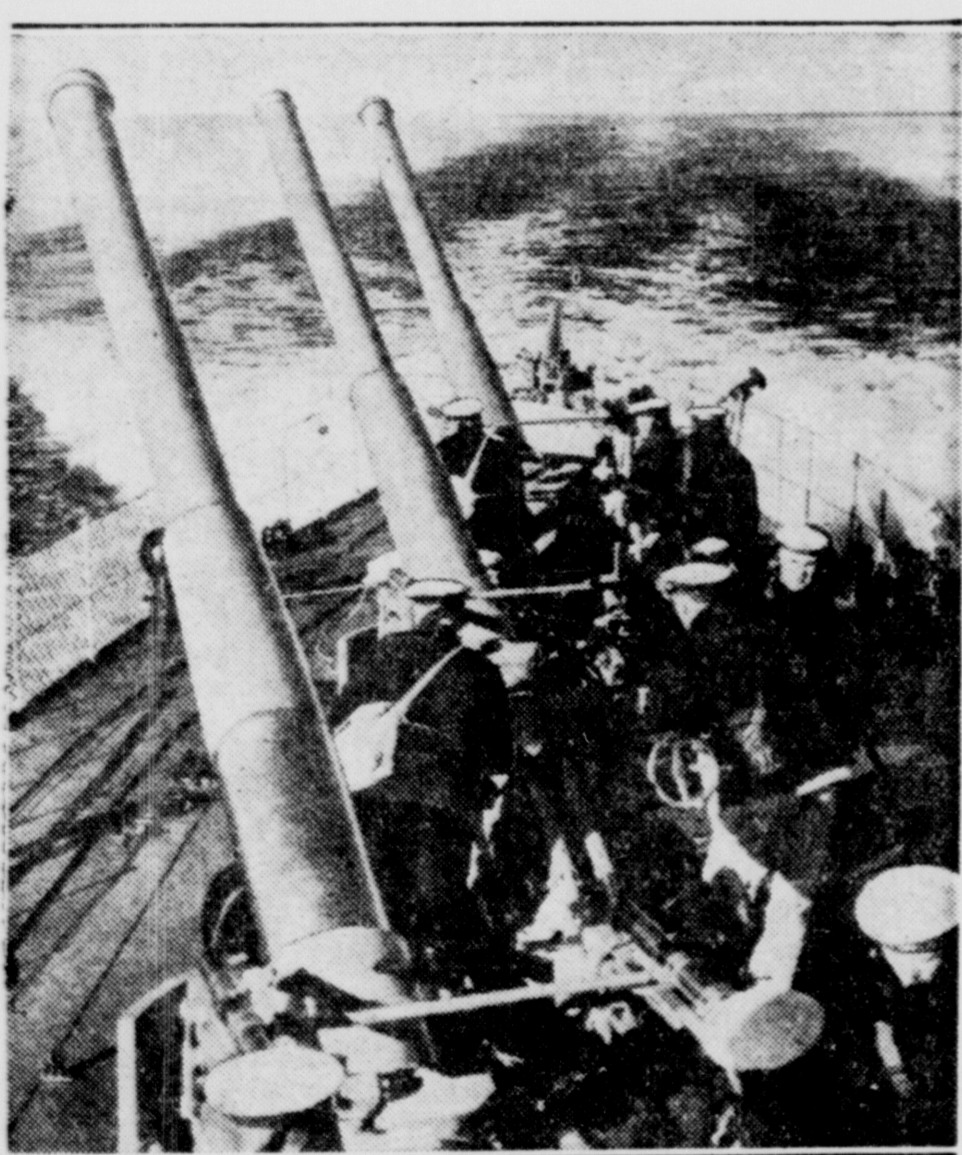

This Central Press fotorelief map graphically shows attack on Finland by Russian armed forces of air, land and sea. Helsinki (formerly Helsingfors), the capital, and Viborg, important city near the border, bore the brunt of the first Russian air raids. Soviet planes dropped incendiary bombs on Helsinki causing many disastrous fires. The Russian navy also bombed the Finnish coast.

Helsinki Rail Station Hit by Red Bombs

Viewed from an elevation here is the beautiful new railroad station in Helsinki. It became the target for Russian warplanes as the Soviet struck from land, sea and air in its invasion of peaceful Finland. The station and nearby postoffice were reported damaged as bombs rained down on the Finnish capital. Fires broke out as the invaders flew over city in waves, dropping what observers described as incendiary bombs. (Central Press)

Red Naval Guns Blast Finland

The big guns of the Soviet warship Yakov-Sverdlov are pictured as they went into action during recent maneuvers. As Russia pressed its undeclared "defensive war" against tiny Finland, the Red naval cannon were fired in earnest. The entire Soviet Baltic fleet was reported to have sailed from the Kronstadt base, and Tammelsu was shelled by Red warships. (Central Press)

Josef V. Stalin, dictator of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. The "man of steel" who will be 60, Dec. 21, was born in a small town in the Caucasus. Originally Josef Dzshugashvili, he began his revolutionary activities. Prior to his dictatorship, Stalin engaged in a long and violent campaign in order to gain funds for the revolution. Ruthlessly he deposed his rivals and disposed of them in various ways. Now Russia is on the march, following the same tactics in gaining control of the Baltic region.

By WALTER L. JOHNS
Central Press Sports Editor

Central Press today presents its 1939 Captains' All-American team, selected for the tenth successive year by all the leading captains of the leading collegiate football teams. It's a bang-up squad, taking in all sections of the United States and worthy of being called All-American. The South dominates the squad, probably because the southern teams have proven stronger than in other sections. The Midwest, with the strong Big Ten Conference hogging the glory, runs second, followed by the Pacific coast. The East ranks fourth, with the Southwest and Missouri Valley bringing up the rear. More than 60 captains voted in this poll, with Central Press' own experts, correspondents and observers adding a voice. Each year certain players stand out above the pack which numbers somewhere in the numbers realm of 16,000 college football players. Picking 11 men from such a huge total is a mammoth task. Naturally, the field narrows down to winning players and week after week stars. It's to be a deal for one man, or several, to shuffle, so Central Press takes the captains' word for it. Our first team lists one player each from the East, the Missouri Valley and the Southwest; two from the South and three each from the Midwest and Pacific Coast.

Sports World Ramblings

Local Smoke Rings: Shenango Township high starts its basketball season on Tuesday, December 5, playing at Evans City. The East New Castle Wildcats' schedule includes 22 foes. Bowling is one of the top ranking evening sports here. Well over 500 men and women participate. Some of the outstanding ten pin keglers include: Earl McCormick, "Tuffy" Thomas, "Lefty" Robinson, Mont Morrow and George Shook. The sport is a favorite with women. Mrs. Ruth Clarke draws the brass ring among the female duo pin demolishers.

Grid Cocktail: Eddie Anderson, Iowa coach, is 39 years old. Texas A. & M. stands for Agricultural and Mechanical college of Texas.

This season's Ohio State eleven copped the first undisputed Big Ten victory for the Bucks since 1920. Close to 58,000 fans will see the New York Giants-Washington Redskins National professional grid loop game Sunday in the Polo Grounds.

Diamond Dust: Don't be surprised if Zeke Bonura is shipped to the minors. Phil K. Wrigley, owner of the Cubs, recently pre-

Noted Race Horse Seriously Injured

(International News Service)

ARCADIA, Cal., Dec. 2.—El Chico, undefeated 1938 two-year-old champion, and pride of the William Ziegler racing stable, now at Santa Anita, was so seriously injured Friday in a three furlong gallop it may be necessary to destroy him.

His injury, according to early examination by veterinarians, was a broken sesamoid bone in the left foreleg.

El Chico, seven times a winner in seven starts as a two-year-old, won $64,100 in prize money in 1938 and was the chief hope of the Ziegler stables in the Santa Anita $100,000 handicap in March.

The colt had been a bit of a disappointment as a 3-year-old but was training well and Mat Brady, trainer for Ziegler, expected great things of him in the coming meeting at Santa Anita.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Three hunters were dead and four were wounded at the end of the first day of deer hunting season in Pennsylvania. Raymond Elliott was shot to death by Victor Steinhiser at Chicora. Steinhiser mistook Elliott for a buck. Both are 18 year old boys. Near Erie, George W. Haft, 42, Erie, was found dead in a field by his brother, Martin. He had accidentally shot himself, a deputy corner stated. Ray Peterson, 24, Boothwyn, was killed near Wilkes-Barre, when his auto struck a pole while enroute to hunting grounds. Wilson Carnahan, 40, Rimersburg, was nipped by a stray bullet in Elk county. Joseph McDonough, 31, Chester, was shot in the chest in Pike county. Richard Crouch, 18, Oil City, was shot in the right leg when he bumped his gun against a tree. Poor hunting was found particularly in Venango counties, where warm weather, low visibility and a lack of tracking snow made marksmanship difficult. In some northern and eastern counties hunters had better luck. Winner in the race to bring down the first deer apparently was Charles Wynnkoop of Hamilton, who took one minute after the legal hour to drop a seven pointer near Ridgway. Next was William N. Martin, Wyomissing, who got his buck at 7:05 a. m. and at 7:10 a. m. Nick Zemo, Washington, D. C. got a buck near Kane.

El Chico, champion 2 year old of 1938, is dead, having been destroyed after he had broken two sesamoid bones in his left foreleg.

New York boxing commission has ruled no boxer may hold more than one title in that state henceforth. Eddie Miller failed to appear against Billy Sossel at Wilkes-Barre for a battle and has been suspended. Cadets are favored seven to five to beat the Army. A wrestling clinic got under way at the Penn State today. Joe Lapkowitz of McKeesport, fullback, will captain Waynesburg gridlers next season.

Award Given At Court Of Honor To Boy Scouts

Eighteen Scouts Presented For Advancement In Various Departments

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—A large percentage of registered scouts and scouts attended the court of honor held at the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening. The awards which were presented were for advancement made during the month of November. Nineteen scouts and scouts were qualified to receive such.

The colors were advanced by members of Troop 4. With the presentation of colors the entire body joined in the repeating of the pledge allegiance to the flag. Troop 8, under the leadership of Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Paul Rossman, gave the twelve scout laws and also the oath.

In a short address by Dr. Stevenson, in which he spoke on "Honor," he stated that honor and doing one's work well is one of the greatest investments one could pay into and yet pay large dividends. He concluded by saying that if one is prepared at all times, this also would be a greatness in his favor.

Presented the following scouts for the awards of second class: William Umiling and George Luther of Troop 8; Dick West of Troop 11; Paul Tripp and William Cataldo of Troop 13.

First class pins were given to the following: James Simpson of Troop 4; Jack Hammersmith of Troop 11; John LeRoy and Howard Morris of Troop 13.

Merit badges were awarded to the following scouts and scouts: Donald Moen, Troop 4, firemanship; Ben Carbeau, Troop 5, public health and personal health; Paul Rossman, Troop 8, dog care, pathfinding and first aid to animals; George Zickel, of Troop 11, dog care; James Cunningham, Troop 13, firemanship; Charles Follette, Troop 13, carpentry, birdstudy, conservation; Louis Leifer, Troop 1, swimming; Chester Craven, Troop 13, life saving, safety.

Representatives from the troops in Ellwood at this court of honor were the Foreman No. 1, Presbyterian No. 4, Baptist No. 5, Rotary No. 8, Kiwanis No. 11, B. & B. No. 12, and First Christian No. 13. The Rotary had the highest percentage present with a total of 17.

Dr. Stevenson announced that the United Presbyterian troop will have charge of the colors at the next court while the Foreman No. 1 will be in charge of the oath and law.

Schaffner Class Has Lovely Party

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—A most enjoyable evening of Friday evening took place at the home of Mrs. William Duncan on Glen avenue when she pleasantly entertained members of the Emma Schaffner class of the Evangelical Reformed church for the annual Yuletide party.

Nineteen members and three guests, Mrs. Russell Siler, Mrs. Fred Tanner of this city and Miss Emma Ritchie of Seattle, Wash., guest of Mrs. Cresswell, participated.

After the meeting, games and contests were enjoyed with the nice prizes being won by Mrs. Cresswell, Mrs. Tanner and Mrs. Siler. Handkerchief showers were held in honor of three birthday anniversaries, those of Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. J. N. Mackey and Mrs. Cresswell and in addition gayly wrapped gifts were exchanged. Seasonable refreshments were served at an appropriate hour by the hostess.

The next meeting will be held on Friday, January 12, with Mrs. Jesse Fehl of Hazen avenue.

JUNIOR AUXILIARY MEMBERS ASSEMBLE

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—There was a good attendance at the semi-monthly meeting of the Junior Auxiliary of the American Legion held last night at the Legion hall on Sixth street.

Bingo was the evening's pleasant pastime with all of the winners being given awards after which an appointed committee served a refreshing lunch.

Friday, December 15, marks the date of the next meeting.

Elks Memorial On Sunday Afternoon

Hon. Joseph Riesenman, Jr., Of Franklin, To Be Guest Speaker

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—Joining brother lodges throughout the nation, the Ellwood Elks lodge will observe the annual Memorial Day service on Sunday afternoon with an appropriate program beginning at 2:30 p. m. at the home, in Crescent avenue.

This annual occasion is dedicated by the order to commemorating in sacred session the memory of those members who have crossed the horizon. A special ritual is provided for these exercises with fitting music and responses, all of which is impressive. The services are open to the public, and relatives of those departed are especially invited to attend.

Robert E. Linn, J. W. Miller, Kenneth K. Parker and Albert Hindmarch, active members of the lodge, answered the final call during the past year.

Hon. Joseph Riesenman, Jr., of Franklin, has been secured as the speaker. Mr. Riesenman, a veteran member of the order, has had a distinguished career in public life as well as in Elksdom.

The complete program follows: Processional, "Funeral March" by Chopin—Robert C. Streeter, organist.

Opening ceremonies—Officers of lodge.

Invocation—Gray Gordon, chaplain.

Solo—Mrs. Joseph Barson with Mrs. B. G. Osterhouse, accompanist. Roll call of departed brothers—H. J. Myers, secretary.

Altar service—Officers Solo—Mrs. Barson Address—Honorable Joseph Riesenman, Jr.

Selection, "Auld Lang Syne"—Assembly.

Closing ceremonies—Officers. Benediction—Chaplain.

Frank M. Fitzgerald heads the committee in charge and those assisting him are George L. Hemmerly, Jr., James C. Reasman, T. J. Newman, Joseph P. Smith, Joseph J. Eckert, George W. Fossnacht, L. Bruce Myers and R. A. Nagle.

School Board To Re-organize Monday Night

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—In accordance with the school code, the Ellwood City Board of Education will convene on Monday night for the purpose of reorganization.

At this meeting, two members, William L. Dean and Dr. H. E. Helting, both re-elected for six-year terms, will be inducted into office. A president and a vice-president will be elected to serve for one year.

Because the meeting occurs so early in the month, the regular meeting of December will also be held on the usual date, Thursday, December 14. Some business matters will be considered on Monday night, Secretary G. B. Hancher stated.

Tri-Hi-Y Club Has Merry Dance

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—A merry party for high school pupils of the 10th, 11th and 12th grades took place last night at the Lincoln high school gym and was held under the auspices of the Tri-Hi-Y club.

There was a good attendance with dancing being featured from 8:30 to 11:30 with music being provided by a local orchestra.

In keeping with the season, the gym was decorated for Christmas with the theme centering about a fireplace near which stood a strikingly decorated Christmas tree. Santa Claus greeted the guests and presided the dance programs. Light refreshments were served by the sponsoring girls' organization.

Baptist Guild To Present Play

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—Members of the World Wide Guild organization of the First Baptist church assisted by a ladies quartette will present a play Sunday night at 7:45. The title of the play is "The Challenge of the Cross" and those taking part are, Mrs. Howard Guy, Mrs. Orin Steward, Misses Mary Worrell, Norma McNeil, Clara King, Dorothy King and Salice Eilers. Mrs. D. J. Jones and Mrs. Ralph Chappell have been the directors in charge.

WAYNE W. C. T. U.

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—Mrs. W. G. Wilkins, county president, will be a special guest of the Wayne W. C. T. U. on Tuesday evening when the December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. L. Coulter, of Bridge street extension. A Christmas grab bag will be featured.

HOSPITAL MEMBERS

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—New members are: Miss Betty Pearson, Ellwood City Hospital Service Corp.

Four Directors Are Elected To Chamber Board

J. A. Evans, C. C. Davidson, Ralph Herge, Robert Shearer, Successful Candidates

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—J. A. Evans and C. C. Davidson, two former members, were re-elected and Ralph Herge and Robert Shearer, two new members were the four men elected to the Chamber of Commerce board of directors.

J. A. Evans is the present president of the Chamber of Commerce and C. C. Davidson has faithfully served on the Chamber Board for a number of years besides heading up important committees each year. Ralph Herge served as president of the Methodist Division for two years in 1937 and 1938 and will make a valuable member. Robert Shearer is at the present time president of the Merchants Division and will also prove to be very industrious in the further improvement of civic developments.

Other directors who are on the board from previous elections are: A. E. Conner, F. M. Moore, Edward Mackasek, C. W. Carbeau, W. P. Keel, Nelson Ruyan, D. F. Jones, Jr., and Dr. H. E. Helting.

At the December meeting which will be held on Thursday, the 28th an election of officers for the year 1940 will be held.

Alfred Z. Pfeffer Funeral On Sunday

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—Funeral services for Alfred Z. Pfeffer of Harmony, will be conducted Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Grace Reformed church of Harmony, with the pastor, Rev. J. O. Gilbert, in charge, assisted by Rev. W. W. Patch of the Zellenople Methodist church. Interment will be in Harmony cemetery.

The body will be removed from the Glenn funeral home, Zellenople, to the church on Sunday at 12:30 p. m.

A. M. L. MEMBERS AT JOHNSTON HOME

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—On Friday evening, Mrs. S. D. Johnston extended the hospitality of her home in Pittsburgh Circle to members of the A. M. L. club with Mrs. Thomas Adams of Canton, O., a sister of the hostess being a special guest.

For diversion, contract bridge was played at three tables with the nice awards going to Mrs. J. G. Ferguson and Mrs. J. E. Powell. In serving, a dainty lunch, Mrs. Adams assisted the hostess.

It was agreed to assemble again on Friday evening, December 22, for a Christmas dinner, with the place to be decided.

MRS. FLORENCE DOBSON IS HONORED BY CLASS

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—Honoring Mrs. Florence Dobson of Princeton, members of the Willing Workers class of the First Christian church gathered last night and tendered her a kitchen shower.

Twelve members of the class attended with the hours being spent in a pleasant informal manner after which refreshments were enjoyed.

On next Friday evening the group will have a regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Herman Patton on the New Castle road and it will also be the annual Christmas party.

V. F. W. AUXILIARY

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—The Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary will hold their regular meeting on Monday night in the Fourth street hall, to be followed by the last in a series of card parties.

PAST OFFICERS

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—Past officers of the Orange Ladies' Lodge will be entertained on Monday night by Mrs. Julia Hooker, of Line avenue.

ELLWOOD PERSONALS

The many friends of Mrs. Elmer Scrima, of Crescent avenue, who underwent an operation on Wednesday at the James Memorial hospital, New Castle, will be glad to know that her condition is satisfactory.

George Komora, of this city, who fractured his knee cap in football practice at Beaver Falls early in November necessitating his confinement to the Providence hospital, Beaver Falls, for sometime, has recovered sufficiently to be removed to his home.

Mrs. William Fehl, of the Ellwood-Zellenople road, who has been ill for sometime and underwent treatment in a Pittsburgh hospital, is now recuperating at her home.

Lee Whitmire, of East Palestine, O., was a guest of A. J. Harper, of Sixth street, on Friday.

Mrs. Maude Harper, of Sixth street, received word this morning of the serious illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. A. Galbreath, of Kane, Pa. The Galbreaths are well-known in this district. Rev. Galbreath having been pastor of a New Castle Methodist church for many years.

Mrs. Percy Wright and Mrs. Jack Kimpel and sons, Jackie and Billy, of Wurtemburg, were Pittsburgh visitors today.

Mrs. Harry Schott Entertains Class

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Harry Schott of the Beaver Falls road graciously opened her home last evening to members of the Doremus class, who gathered for the semi-monthly meeting, with 18 members in attendance.

Members were pleased to welcome Mrs. Hugh Muir, who has been ill for several months, back to the meetings.

Devotions were led by Mrs. F. L. Schweitzer, and during the meeting plans were made to aid two needy families at Christmas time.

After an informal hour the hostess was aided in serving a tempting lunch by Mrs. Henry Wiley.

On Wednesday, Dec. 13, the group will gather for a Christmas dinner to be served at the church by members of the Young Married People's class.

Orange Ladies Have Card Party

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—The first in a series of card and bingo parties was held last night by the Orange Ladies lodge in the bank hall and proved to be most successful, with eight tables of cards and one large table of bingo in play.

At the close of the evening attractive prizes were given to the following winners: Mrs. Fred Hall, Mrs. Lottie Fye, John Ames and Jesse Dougherty, for 500; W. S. Cox, for euchre, and Mrs. Jessie Young and Mrs. Mary Christie, for bingo.

Mrs. Edna Bright and her committee served palatable refreshments. The next party will follow the regular meeting on Friday, Dec. 8.

Attending Wedding Today At Ambridge

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—Miss Kathryn Lauderbaugh and Robert C. Streeter, Jr., of this city, attended the wedding this afternoon of Miss Ellen Byers of Ambridge, to Thomas Scantling of Monaca.

The ceremony was performed at 4:30 p. m. in the Ambridge United Presbyterian church with Rev. Thomas Graham as the officiant. Miss Lauderbaugh and the bride were classmates at Geneva college, and recently the former entertained at a lovely tea and linen shower at her home in Glen avenue, this city, for Miss Byers. The guests, all from out of town, were classmates of the bride at Geneva.

George Services To Be Held Sunday

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—Funeral services for Thomas George, who passed away at his home in Second street on Thursday afternoon, will be held on Sunday afternoon at three o'clock from the home with Rev. T. H. Carson, pastor of the First Methodist church, to officiate. Interment will be made on Monday morning in the Shenango cemetery, Greenville.

MRS. VOORHEES HAS D. D. CLUB

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Russell Voorhees pleasantly entertained members of the D. D. club on Friday evening at her home in Wampum avenue, for the bi-weekly session, with Mrs. Ralph Richards sharing as a special guest.

Five hundred, placed at two tables, held the attention of the group, with the attractive prizes going to Mrs. Henry Stoner, Mrs. Ralph Thompson and Mrs. Earl Yeager. Mrs. Thompson aided the hostess in serving a dainty repast.

Members were invited to meet again on Friday, Dec. 15, for a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Earl Yeager of Ridge avenue.

KENSINGTON CLUB LUNCHEON GUESTS

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 2.—Pricilla Kensington club was pleasantly entertained at a one o'clock luncheon at a popular tea room on Friday afternoon with Mrs. C. M. Parshall as hostess.

After the pleasant meal the group gathered at the Parshall home in Lawrence avenue, for an afternoon of sewing.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEALL

This will be news to those who are interested in ice skating. There has been a little this year... maybe you don't believe this statement, but after all, what's a free country for? We have no reason to tell a falsehood. Miller's pond had a thin layer and it was strong enough to hold a couple of skaters for a short time.

It's mighty nice to go out, but it's mighty nice to be able to stay home and enjoy the comforts that are there. Some folks think that every night of the week must be spent in some hot-ent-to place. Why do they spend their hard-earned cash in keeping up a home? We suggest that this person take a night out once in a while and spend it around the house. Take for instance, there are quite a few fellows who spend the evening in the kitchen. Trying new ideas. One of these fellows, or maybe we should say cooks, has developed a system whereby he can chicken. Says tastes mighty fine. Another one has developed a wonderful tasting cookie... Don't play around away from home all your life... it will catch you in later life (they tell me).

Isn't it strange that princes and kings And clowns that caper in sawdust rings And common folks like you and me Are builders of eternity.

To each is given a bag of tools, A shapeless mass and a book of rules; And each must make ere life has flown, A stumbling block, or a stepping stone.

No doubt Christmas seals are in your homes. Don't forget and lay them aside. Write your check or send the money today. Every cent that you spend for Christmas Seals will help an unfortunate person back to health... It is estimated that there are more than 500,000 active cases of tuberculosis in the United States.

Tomorrow is Sunday... a day to think, and there is no better place than in a quiet church auditorium. Why not attend at least one service... peace in the United States is dearer than anything... let's keep it that way.

Typically Dull

Steel Stocks Hold Lead, Coppers, Oils, And Aviation Stocks Steady, Others Listless

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service Financial Writer
NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Stocks marked time today in a typically dull Saturday market. Price changes were extremely small and trading was listless throughout. Most stocks were a little higher at the opening, but modest gains were gradually erased and several readers wound up behind minus signs.

There were few changes of note. Great Northern Railway slipped a point in a generally soft rail list, while Union Carbide gained as much in an otherwise dull chemical group.

Bethlehem U. S. Steel, Chrysler and General Motors were typical of most leaders, holding within narrow limits around last night's closing levels. Coppers, utilities, oils and aviation stocks were steady to a shade higher. Mail orders, rubbers and electrical equipments were mixed at the close. Movements elsewhere were meaningless.

Young Couple Found Dead In Tourist Cabin

Young Boy And Girl From Near Leechburg Victims Of Monoxide Gas Fumes

(International News Service)
KITTANNING, Pa., Dec. 2.—State police identification today placed an Allegheny Valley young couple, found dead from carbon monoxide poisoning in a tourist cabin, as the 'teen-age sweethearts' earlier reported missing from their nearby homes.

Police and coroner's identification listed the victims as Frances Marie Heilman, 18, and Arnold Myers, 19, both from near Leechburg. Both were reported to have disappeared from their homes on Tuesday, according to motor police at Kittanning. Police reportedly learned from Zilly's Grove tourist camp attendants that the couple rented a cabin Wednesday night. When they failed to check out yesterday, an employee investigated and found their bodies, police said. The gas stove believed to have caused their death, still was burning, they added.

La Guardia Air Field Dedicated At New York City

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—La Guardia Field, New York's $40,000,000 municipal airport, was opened today as the new eastern terminus of four of the nation's major air lines.

The field, perhaps the most modern and best equipped in the world, was opened officially when a transport completed a regularly scheduled flight from Chicago a few minutes after midnight. The airport's $3,000,000 worth of equipment swung into play as the plane glided to a perfect landing while more than a thousand well-wishers, including city officials, cheered. Shortly thereafter, another transport departed for the Windy City.

Air lines using the field as its eastern terminus are the United, American, TWA, and the Canadian Colonial.

Vatican Paper Bitterly Assails Russian Invasion

Vatican Organ Says "Invasion Of Tiny Finland Shows Evils Of Bolshevism"

(International News Service)
VATICAN CITY, Dec. 2.—A scathing denunciation of Soviet Russia's attack on Finland, believed to have been inspired by Pope Pius XII, featured Friday's issue of Osservatore Romano, official Vatican organ.

"The bombing of Helsinki and other Finnish cities with heavy loss of life in the Soviet's '100 to 1' warfare was denounced as an act of aggression that reveals the true soul of Bolshevism."

"Yesterday morning Bolshevism's peace moralizing collapsed," the article stated, "the aggression constitutes a brutal awakening and reveals the soul and visage of the great revolution which must compensate on earth for the paradise repudiated in heaven."

The world can now judge competently, it was stated, whether atheism can be trusted with the task of re-educating humanity.

It was learned today that Pope Pius will offer special prayers for world peace on Dec. 8 when he attends service in the Borghese Chapel of Santa Maria Maggiore Basilica on the feast of the Immaculate Conception.

Adoration of the Holy Sacrament and special prayers to the Blessed Virgin will be offered imploring peace and tranquility throughout the world.

JEWISH HOMES TO CELEBRATE FEAST OF LIGHTS DECEMBER 6

Despite the 20th-century attempt of some nations to destroy Jews and Judaism, the evening of December 6, will find a candle burning in Jewish homes and synagogues throughout the world. These lights kindled in celebration of the Feast of Lights—the feast of Chanukko of the Jewish calendar—proclaim the eternal spirit of ancient faith.

On each of eight successive evenings, an additional candle will be lighted. When eight candles burn together on the last night of the festival, they will stand as a symbol of a courage that faces the future as it has so often in the past.

Commemorating the triumph of the Jewish people, under the leadership of the Maccabees, over the Syrian tyrant, Antiochus, Chanukko gives strength to Jews in a world harboring a Hitler. Of old an Antiochus too tried to root out Judaism and set up paganism in its stead.

In 165 B. C. T. Jews found strength to regain their Temple from paganism and to burn a cruse of sacred oil in honor of that victory. Jews in the 20th century burn the Chanukko lights to signify that belief in the dignity of man is still alive and a potent force in the world.

To martyrs of today Chanukko brings a message of courage. For the world's first martyrs for freedom of conscience pointed the way to salvation in the days of the Maccabees.

Chanukko opens on the 25th day of Kislev, the ninth month of the Jewish calendar, the anniversary of the date when the Temple in Jerusalem was rededicated.
